

LIFE OF
ST. LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI

S. Laurentius a Brundisio Capuinus

ST. LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI, CAPUCHIN.

Frontispiece.

LIFE OF
SAINT LAWRENCE
OF BRINDISI
APOSTLE AND DIPLOMAT

BY FATHER ANTHONY BRENNAN, O.S.F.C.

NEW YORK, CINCINNATI, CHICAGO
BENZIGER BROTHERS
PRINTERS TO THE HOLY APOSTOLIC SEE

1911

Nihil Obstat.

P. CUTHBERTUS, O.S.F.C.,

P. DANIEL, O.S.F.C.,

CENSORES DEPUTATI.

Imprimatur.

P. GULIELMUS A. MOATE, O.S.F.C.,

VICARIUS PROVINCIALIS.

CRAWLEY,

Die 13 Decembris, 1910.

Nihil Obstat.

P. OSMUNDUS COONEY, O.F.M.

CENSOR DEPUTATUS.

Imprimatur.

EDM. CAN. SURMONT,

VICARIUS GENERALIS.

WESTMONASTERII,

Die 3 Januarii, 1911.

TO THE FATHERS AND BROTHERS
OF THE
ENGLISH CAPUCHIN FRANCISCAN PROVINCE
THIS LIFE OF THEIR PATRON SAINT IS AFFECTIONATELY DEDICATED

PRAYER

O GOD, Who didst bestow on Thy Confessor, Blessed Lawrence, the spirit of counsel and fortitude, enabling him to execute arduous undertakings for the glory of Thy Name and the salvation of souls, grant us in the same spirit to know our duties, and by the aid of his intercession to perform them. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

“Roman Seraphic Breviary,” July 7.

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

	PAGES
I. State of Europe at time of Lawrence's life—Saints of that period—Franciscan contribution—Class of men to which Lawrence belonged - - - -	1
II. Lives of the Saint : (1) Life by Father Bonaventure—its qualities ; (2) the Commentary ; (3) the present life and its sources - - - -	3
III. Difficulties of portraying St. Lawrence : (1) The Correspondence not available ; (2) the praise of his biographers - - - -	5
IV. Reason of the present work - - - -	6

CHAPTER I

BIRTH AND EARLY EDUCATION

I. Brindisi—Position and historical associations - -	8
II. Family of Rossi, from which Lawrence sprang - -	9
III. Birth and baptism - - - -	9
IV. Child of benediction—Pious dispositions—Childhood—“Little Angel”—First school—Testimony of his tutor - - - -	10
V. Lawrence as a boy-preacher—Wonderful effect of his sermons—Sought after as a preacher - - -	11
VI. Lawrence's first great trial—Father's death - -	12

CHAPTER II

SEMINARIST AT VENICE

I. Opposition of his mother to his entering religion—Departure for Venice - - - -	13
II. Character of Lawrence's uncle, Peter Rossi—Lawrence enters seminary—His Franciscan habit—His cousin's reverence for it - - - -	15
III. His mortified life at college—Fasts and wears a hair-shirt—His fervour at prayer—Ecstasies - - -	16

	PAGES
IV. His influence, charity, and tact in conversation—His companionship with a certain student—their piety on Sundays and holidays—His fervour towards the Blessed Sacrament—"The angel of the Lord"	17
V. Miraculous calming of the sea at Venice - - -	18
VI. Longing desire to enter religion—Attracted to Capuchin Order—His intimacy with the Friars—Provincial tries Lawrence and his companion, and is satisfied with them—Makes trial of the Capuchin life in 1574 - - - - -	19

CHAPTER III

NOVICE AT VERONA

I. How he entered the Novice House at Verona—Clothing, February 18—Fidelity and fervour of the new novice—Testimony of fellow-novices -	22
II. His entire surrender of self—At recreation—His love of penance - - - - -	24
III. Trying ordeal for the young novice—Serious illness—Miraculous cure—Profession - - - - -	25

CHAPTER IV

STUDENT AT PADUA

I. Promotion to studies—His sense of the responsibility imposed on him - - - - -	26
II. His facility in learning—His willingness to help others—Supernatural illumination—His attitude towards the Bible, and his desire to acquaint himself with the original texts—An instance of his thoroughness—His perfect mastery of Hebrew—Miraculous mode of acquiring proficiency in this language—His knowledge of other ancient tongues - -	27
III. His mastery of European languages—His wonderful memory—An instance of its power—Learns the Bible by rote—His almost universal information on matters sacred—"Another Thomas Aquinas" -	30
IV. Secret of success—Natural talents—A spirit of prayer—His constant cultivation of the Divine presence—The relation of piety to science—His industry in study - - - - -	32
V. Suspends study on account of illness—Goes to Oderzo—Miraculous cure by Our Lady—Returns to study—Gratitude to Our Lady - - - - -	33

